— Detroit Manufacturing Systems, 3/2/16

“We will support high-quality union training programs”

— Warren, MI, 8/11/16

“... strengthening unions doesn’t just serve members — it leads to better pay and benefits, and working conditions for all employees”

— Warren, MI, 8/11/16

WILL PROTECT UNION WORK AND UNION WORKERS.

THIS LABOR DAY, THE CHOICE IS CLEAR FOR OUR MEMBERS... DO NOT ALLOW WHAT WE HAVE BUILT TO BE TORN DOWN!

UBC founder Peter McGuire started Labor Day back in 1882. This Labor Day we need to focus on the election.

Our powerful enemies continue to work hard to cut wages and end union protections.

- National Right-To-Work
- The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB)
- The Supreme Court

There is so much at stake for America's workers.

While some in his party vote with us, Trump is 100% against us and every other union, too:

- Trump is in favor of right-to-work laws that weaken collective bargaining and union strength.
- Trump would eliminate prevailing wages by ending federal Davis-Bacon, which gives union bidders a fair chance to win work on publicly funded projects.

→ Trump would nominate judges to the Supreme Court who will vote to ban project labor agreements, vote in favor of right-to-work and vote to lower safety and training standards.

And Secretary Clinton?

We know Hillary Clinton supports union workers and our rights. She stands with us on our Carpenter issues – including a comprehensive plan for infrastructure spending, protecting social security and the right to collective bargaining.

For UBC members, this election is a clear choice, between an enemy of unions and a proven friend of working families.

In 2016, Labor Day reminds me why my vote will be for my union – and for American workers.

— Douglas J. McCarron, General President
